

A summer research internship program in Germany for advanced BSc students interested in quantum science and technologies

Simon Wegener Fotografie

ML4Q Undergraduate Research Internship Program

Looking for an undergraduate summer internship program?
Interested in quantum science and technologies?

Join ML4Q's Undergraduate Research Internship Program and get hands-on experience in one of ML4Q groups in Aachen, Bonn, Cologne, Düsseldorf or Jülich!

Network with other students and scientists!
Experience students' life in Germany!

When: 8-12 weeks between May and September

Who can apply: Excellent international and German BSc students in Physics or other relevant program

Requirements:

- At least 4 completed semesters
- Completed course in quantum mechanics
- Excellent academic record reflected in overall GPA
- Proficiency in English corresponding to IELTS score of at least 6,5 or equivalent
- Research experience is a plus

Support: travel costs reimbursement up to 700 EUR + internship allowance of around 700 EUR per month; ML4Q Research School will assist in administrative issues.

ML4Q
MATTER AND LIGHT FOR QUANTUM COMPUTING

Application deadline
for 2022 internships
Nov 15th, 2021

For further assistance contact ml4q-researchschool@
uni-koeln.de

More information
<https://ml4q.de>

